

MEDIA RELEASE
For immediate delivery

CLAYOQUOT BIOSPHERE TRUST AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS TO DESERVING STUDENTS

(TOFINO– 09/31/2010) –

The Clayoquot Biosphere Trust (CBT) is pleased to award its 2010 Ucluelet Secondary School (USS) scholarship to recent graduate Mykaila Sadler and the Nuu-chah-nulth Student scholarship to Brittany Morgan.

“These students have both achieved high academic standing, while making significant contributions to their communities” says Rebecca Hurwitz, CBT Community Coordinator. “We wish them great success.”

The CBT USS Scholarship runs for four years, $3,000 per year and is available to USS students in their grade 12 year. The CBT also offers a Nuu-Chah-Nulth Scholarship, available to students from the Biosphere region graduating from high school.

The CBT is grateful to Genus Capital Management for their annual contribution to the scholarship program.

The CBT is proud to be able to offer strong community support for students aspiring to higher education. The most recent recipients include: Malcom Drake, Sydney Morrison, Josh Charleson and Amanda Beek.

Pictures Attached.

For more information:
Rebecca Hurwitz
Community Coordinator
Tel: 250-725-2219
rebecca@clayoquotbiosphere.org